

Press Release: Y Knot Winery

Southern Idaho Winery Receives Top Honors

Y-Knot Winery Wins Big at Taste Northwest

Glenns Ferry, Idaho, June 2019.

Y-Knot have a glass or two of some of the best tasting wine in southern Idaho?

Y-Knot Winery, located on the banks of the Snake River in Glenns Ferry, Idaho chose 6 of their best wines to enter in the Taste Northwest Wine Awards, and out of the 6, 5 took home top honors!

Entered were:

Pinot Gris-Double Gold Award

Rose-Double Gold Award

River's Mist-Gold Award

Meritage-Silver Award

Cabernet Franc-Bronze Award

These wines were produced and bottled at Y-Knot Winery from locally grown vineyards located throughout the Snake River Valley in southern Idaho.

The new owners of Y-Knot Winery are very pleased with the results, and excited for the future of the winery. Their goal for the future is to produce a top quality wine that sets Idaho apart from the rest, and to become one of the top producers supplying local markets and possibly beyond! Much of this success can be attributed to the new winemaker, Jamie Martin, out of Hagerman, Idaho, and past owner of Rose Creek Winery. He is a wonderful addition to the Y-Knot future. You can find the Y-Knot wines in southern Idaho at Grit in Caldwell, the Farmers Market and Rudy's in Twin Falls, and also at Camas on the Go in Mountain Home with more locations coming soon.

Y-Knot Winery is located in Glenns Ferry, right beside Three Island State Park and boasts a 9-hole golf course, RV park, cabins to rent, and a bar and restaurant. Y-Knot visit Glenns Ferry and stop on in to the winery and try their award winning wines! It's worth the trip!
