

Timothy L. Solomon

Timothy L. Solomon joined PacifiCorp as a regional business manager in January 2014. He lives in Idaho Falls and has an office in Rexburg, Idaho. Tim provides large customer and community management for PacifiCorp's Idaho service territory as well as management of national accounts for Utah, Wyoming, and Idaho.

For the 17 years prior to joining PacifiCorp, Tim managed a private business lending and equity investment concern focused on financing growth companies and helping entrepreneurs with great ideas get started and build sound businesses. He also managed a 75,000 square foot business incubation facility focused on helping business startups.

Tim received both his BA and MA degrees from Utah State University, graduating with honors. He is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma's Economic Development Institute and achieved Certified Economic Developer (CEcD) status. He also received the certified Economic Development Finance Professional designation from the National Development Council (NDC). He has served on many private and public boards and received various professional honors throughout the years.